Charge Felony To Army Officer 2 SUSPECTS HELD IN GIRL CASE

GRILL PAIR IN ANAHEIM ATTACK ON WOMAN

Men Said to Be Members of Fumigating Crews Are Under Arrest

Arrested this afternoon under strong suspicion of having beaten and robbed Miss Florence Hammel, of Anaheim, A. Zumkeller, 28, also of Anaheim, a German, said to have been suspected in similar cases in the past, was rushed to the county jail in Santa Ana.

So high is the feeling against the attacker of Miss Hammel running in Anaheim that Sheriff Jackson feared a lynching in case it became known that Zumkeller had been taken into custody.

Zumkeller was arrested upon the finding of the purse taken from Miss Hammel. The purse was found by the young daughter of Mrs. Thomas Waters, 326 North Los Angeles street, Anaheim, in the Waters' back yard. Sheriff Jackson and City Marshal Stedman took the purse to the Trudean home, where Miss Hammel identified it as hers. The contents remained intact save for the money, $16.

Zumkeller's home is in the 400 block, one block away from the Waters' residence.

Zumkeller is said to have been openly jostled about the attack at Anaheim, and is said to have talked about it in detail before any but the police officials in Anaheim were supposed to know about it.

Suspected Before, Claim Zumkeller is said to have been under suspicion for some time as being the man who has approached numerous women and girls in Anaheim during the past two months.

About two months ago he was arrested in connection with an alleged attack upon Miss Elizabeth Hiscok of San Fernando, who was at the time visiting her uncle, Rev. John Knox. Zumkeller was one of two men who were arrested in connection with the case. Because of lack of positive identification on the part of Miss Hiscok, and other seemingly insurmountable obstacles, the district attorney's office was forced to release Zumkeller.

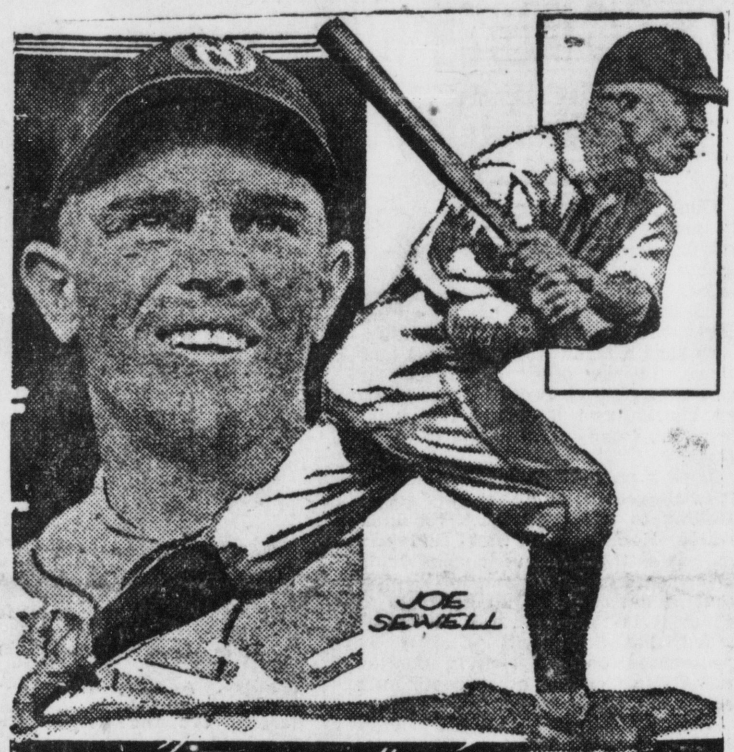

At the scene of the Hiscok affair, a black mask was picked up. Later the black cloth from which Zumkeller was alleged to have cut out the mask, was found in Zumkeller's home. The mask still in possession of the district attorney's office, and the black cloth is in possession of the Anaheim police.

Zumkeller is said to be a member of a fumigating crew which has been working a quarter of a mile from the Trudean home, within a few hundred yards of which Miss Hammel was attacked.

Sheriff Jackson and Marshal Stedman of Anaheim, after taking Zumkeller into custody were engaged in searching his house at a late hour this afternoon. Zumkeller lives with his wife.

C. Arica, a Mexican, was arrested last night in an Anaheim rooming house. Arica, who is a member of a fumigating gang working on the opposite side of town from where the crime took place, was arrested this afternoon. Zumkeller lives with his wife.

YOUNG RECRUIT IS FILLING SHOES OF VETERAN IN SERIES

When Ray Caldwell, veteran shortstop of the Cleveland Indians, was killed by a blow from a pitched ball several weeks ago, baseball fans doubted if the Indians would be able to hold the lead in the American League race after suffering such a heavy loss. To Joe Sewell, college graduate, who had not yet completed his first season in the minors, fell the task of filling Chapman's place. His work in the short field for Cleveland was brilliant and at the bat he handled himself well. He has been a bit nervous in his work in the world series, but now that the Indians are set on his way home, Sewell is expected to settle down and give a good account of himself. Note that he has wide-awake eyes and that he takes a vicious cut at the ball. When his bat connects with the pill the fielders must be on their toes if they expect to cut him out of a safe hit.

GEM THIEVES IN $200,000 HAUL

BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Two hundred thousand dollars' worth of set diamonds were stolen from Max Lowenthal, 35, of Buffalo, agent for the Philip Present Company, wholesale jeweler of Rochester, N. Y., by two men early today. Lowenthal had just alighted from a street car on his way home with the diamonds in two suitcases when he was attacked.

After knocking Lowenthal down with their revolvers, the robbers jumped into a taxicab and drove away. Clarence Miller, driver of the taxi, stopped the car in front of a police station. He jumped out and ran to notify the police, but the robbers escaped.

Shortly afterward, it was reported to the police two men were said to have thrown a suitcase into a vacant lot. Police went to the lot and found the suitcase, which bore Lowenthal's initials. It contained two or three diamond rings which had been overlooked. After Lowenthal's injuries had been dressed, he told the police he believed the robbers had followed him from Chicago, where he obtained the diamonds. He said most of the diamonds were set in platinum.

Neither Lowenthal or Miller could give a good description of the bandits.

U. S. STARTS MOVE TO INSURE COAL SUPPLY

WASHINGTON, Oct. 9.—Two divisions of the government were in action today to insure a supply of coal for domestic consumers throughout the country and to keep down the price.

Under special orders of the interstate commerce commission all railroads of Montana and Wyoming were rushing every available coal car to the east to increase production.

Acting on orders from Attorney General Palmer, district attorneys and special agents in all big cities were collecting evidence of alleged profiteering. The evidence will be presented to grand juries under the Lever act before October 18, Palmer announced.

$1000 BURGLARY AT BREA STORE

Silk shirt bandits last night broke into the men's furnishings store of Harry Ray, at Brea, and removed $1000 worth of merchandise. The looters were fastidious, taking only the choice lots of stock. The loot included silk shirts, wool shirts, hats, caps, and smaller lots of other articles.

The looting took place between 2 a. m. when City Marshal D. O. Stegman made his rounds and saw that everything was all right, and 4 a. m. when the restaurant next door to Ray's place opened up. The loss was discovered about 6 a. m. this morning.

The looters entered by the back door, and carried away the goods in an automobile.

Excellent fingerprint impressions of the looters have been obtained, according to Deputy Sheriff Holbrook, who is working on the case. No other clues had been discovered up to an early hour this afternoon.

The loss was not covered by insurance.

HIST! SCARE IN 'ALMOST' BOMB PLOT

3 Policemen and P. O. Clerk Solve Mystery of Big Black Bag

A tentative bomb, a great big possible T. N. T. thing, was found in the lobby of the Santa Ana postoffice. It took three policemen and a postal clerk to lay bare the diabolical plot and save the postoffice from being everlastingly blown up.

Wilbur Palmer, clerk at the postoffice, discovered the fiendish thing. Palmer goes to work at the ungodly hour of 4 a. m. At that same hour the night shift of the Santa Ana police force homeward plods its weary way, while the day shift begins its tramp, tramp, tramping of the city's sidewalks.

Palmer stepped into the postoffice lobby yesterday morning, and there, right there on the floor beside the decorative waste paper boxes was a big black handbag.

Blithely, Palmer picked the thing up. He set it down again very suddenly.

Thought Hits Palmer

"Maybe it is a bomb!" Somehow that startling thought struck Palmer all at once. He sidled around the bag. He crawled up to it, and listened. Palmer has been going through a cheerful siege of the grip, and his ears are all stopped up. Therefore he could not trust his ears. He could hear no ticking of diabolical machinery, but that was no sign that the darn thing was not ticking.

There is no trait quite so commendable under some circumstances as the trait of caution. Palmer had it strong just then. Anyhow, if the thing was only a lost handbag, it was a police job. They are used to handling lost articles, bombs and such everyday things as that.

Palmer hastened to the office of the city marshal. There he found three policemen. Policemen Heard and Rogers were just going off duty, and Policeman Ryan was just coming on.

Piloted by Palmer, the three officers of the law formed a posse and walked carefully into the lobby of Uncle Sam's rented quarters.

That handbag looked a lot like a bomb. Wasn't it black? Wasn't it in a federal building, and aren't anarchists always trying to blow up the government?

The posse listened for the tick. It listened one at a time and then all together.

The black bag remained as silent as the grave, and they do say that that is silence supreme.

Not one single tick broke the dead silence.

Palmer dropped a pencil out of his quaking ear. It hit the floor. That is, the pencil did. Every man jumped halfway to the ceiling.

"Don't do that again," warned a policeman.

Minutes passed. There didn't seem to be any use in prolonging the agony if they were to die, why let's get it over with.

Joe Ryan bravely stepped forward. It really didn't make much difference who opened the thing, for if it really contained a couple of Big Bertha loads chances are not one of the four would ever have a chance to tell his family goodbye.

So Joe took the desperate chance. Drawing a long breath, he gently moved the catch.

4:11 o'clock, and all is well. Joe Ryan moved the catch.

4:13 o'clock, and all is still well. The mouth of the handbag has been spread until three breathless policemen and a speechless postal clerk could peek in.

Still no tick; still no explosion. "Nothing but clothing," said somebody heaving a proverbial sigh of relief.

Marquard, Pitching Favorite, Taken as Ticket Scalper

CLEVELAND, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Police Chief Smith announced today that a warrant charging "Rube" Marquard, star pitcher for the Brooklyn team, with ticket scalping had been issued at noon today.

Smith said one of his officers took "Rube" from the Winton Hotel, where the Dodgers have their headquarters, on the charge that he was trying to sell a set of tickets for the four games here for $350.

When Marquard arrived at police headquarters Smith said, he pleaded to be released so that he would be available for the game this afternoon if Manager Robinson wanted to use him. Smith released him, but said he ordered the warrant issued and "Rube" is to be arraigned Monday morning.

A feature of the evening was a speech by the venerable pastor, Pak, the only Korean delegate attending the convention. Robbed in white, and trembling, he emphasized the strength of Christianity in Korea. He believed it was God's purpose that the Korean church should be the medium for the conversion of the Mohammedans and the Buddhists of the Far East.

"I am sorry that I alone represent Korea," said Pastor Pak, "but many of my countrymen are in jail and sorrow reigns in the land because so many Christians have met with unhappiness. I ask you to pray for me and my people."

CORK, Ireland, Oct. 9.—A large body of police surrounded the city hall here today, firing rifles, and throwing incendiary bombs from the windows. The firemen later controlled the fire.

INDIANS SLAUGHTER FOUR ROBIN HEAVERS IN VITAL STRUGGLE

LEAGUE PARK, Cleveland, Sept. 9.—The Cleveland Indians put joy and new hope into the hearts of twenty-seven thousand raving Ohio fans here this afternoon by defeating the Brooklyn Nationals, 5 to 1 in the fourth game of the world's series, and evened the count for the world's title.

Stanley Coveleskie, the big Polish spitballer, registered a well-earned win over the Robins, holding them to five hits.

Coveleskie has won both of Cleveland's victories in the big series, and his work today was every bit as effective as on his first appearance.

The batting eyes of the Indians returned to them when they cut loose on their home field today. Going after a quartet of Brooklyn pitchers they amassed a total of twelve safe drives. The Indians were a fighting band from start to finish.

The attack began on Leon Cadore in the opening inning, and before their initial drive had been stopped two runs were across the rubber. With Coveleskie pitching unbeatable baseball, two tallies were sufficient, and the game was won. Cleveland scored two more in the third inning, one made off Mamaux, and the other off Marquard, who relieved him. Pfeffer went in to pitch in the seventh inning when Marquard was taken out for a pinch hitter.

The infield of both clubs worked in regular world series fashion. Wambsgans at second for the Indians, planted himself firmly in the affections of the home town fans by his sterling work.

Brooklyn threatened in only one inning. A vicious single by Jimmie Johnston, followed by a hard double from Griffith's bat, sent Johnston across the plate. The final run came in the sixth inning on single by Coveleskie, Evans and Wambsgans.

DUCKS ARE PLENTIFUL IS REPORT OF EXPERT
RIVERSIDE, Oct. 9.—Joseph R. Russell, who was game warden of California as long ago as when Gillett was governor, was at the Reynolds yesterday. Russell said: "I think the open season on ducks, which will begin next Saturday morning, October 16th, will be the best we have had in eight or nine years on the Pacific coast. The shooting at the coast and one the marshes of the interior will be immense. I have never seen such promises as I saw last week in Imperial valley. The Los Angeles hunters are getting ready to come over into this region in larger numbers than in a long time. As for quail hunting the outlook is no good. The enormous number of quail hunters is putting an end to the celebrated quail of California."

ENDERLE MADE CHIEF DEPUTY

Capt. Maurice Enderle of Yorba street has been appointed chief deputy in the office of County Assessor James Sleeper. He will begin his duties Monday.

The selection of Capt. Enderle to fill the vacancy that occurred some time ago when Robert Skiles resigned in order that he might have time to look after his ranch property is one that will be particularly pleasing to a large number of residents of the county. Enderle was brought up in Santa Ana, graduated from high school here and later from Stanford University, and he knows the county thoroughly.

When the United States entered the world war, Capt. Enderle was practicing law in Los Angeles. He entered the first officers' training school, secured a commission as lieutenant, and went overseas with the 362nd Infantry, which regiment was in the hardest fighting done by the Ninety-first division. Capt. Enderle distinguished himself in battle, remaining with his company though wounded until he was taken from the field as the result of additional wounds.

Returning, Capt. Enderle decided to make Santa Ana his home, in order that he might be with his father, whose health has not been good, and who wanted his son to help him look after his property here.

Capt. Enderle returned yesterday from Minneapolis, where he went as a California delegate to the national convention of the American Legion.
Today County Assessor Sleeper announced that he had appointed Enderle as his chief deputy.

NURSE AIDS IN WELFARE WORK

"The presence of the Red Cross community nurse at the conferences with mothers who take their babies to the Child Welfare Station Thursday afternoons has added much to the value of the conferences," said Mrs. Carrie N. Leebick, secretary of ture on child care has been distributed. This work is being much more efficiently handled since we have had the services of Miss Rohde, the community nurse, to follow up these cases in the home, after the doctor has examined the child at the station.

"We urge all mothers to take advantage of the services given free of charge at this station, and ask that they be on hand promptly at the designated hour.

TELLS STAND IN DISPUTE ON GAS

That the city of Los Angeles is attempting to "grab off" natural gas developed in Orange county by the Southern Counties Gas Company in order to maintain the heat units of the mixed gas there and force Orange county gas consumers to accept a grade of gas lower in heat units than now is served, was disclosed at the hearing before the Railroad Commission in Los Angeles on the application of Los Angeles to put all of Southern California on a mixed gas basis.

The application was bitterly opposed by the Southern Counties Gas company, which pioneered the use of natural gas from Orange county fields. Should the commission grant the application, the Southern Counties Gas Company will be forced to install plants for manufacturing artificial gas in various cities and supply this territory with mixed gas.
Natural gas has heat units of 1000, while the mixed gas served in Los Angeles has 815 British thermal units.

The Southern Counties Gas Company announced that it would resist by every means within its power, any effort to deprive it and its customers of any of the natural gas supply it has developed.

"Since November last the Stage Railroad Commission has conducted at intervals a series of hearings at Los Angeles for the purpose of inquiring into the natural gas situation in Southern California," said J. C.
Hayden, local manager of the Southern Counties Gas Co.

"At these hearings the Southern Counties Gas Company, Southern California Gas Company, and Los Angeles Gas and Electric Company have appeared and furnished to the commission reports as to the available supplies of natural gas; also as to their requirements for the coming year, and have shown steps taken in order to assure an adequate supply of gas to their respective consumers during the ensuing winter.

L. A. Seeks Readjustment
"The city of Los Angeles has never been served with straight natural gas, but with a mixture of natural and artificial gas," Hayden continued.

"The communities served by the Southern Counties Gas Company, Santa Ana, Orange county, and a straight natural gas. The city of Los Angeles has made repeated efforts to compel a re-adjustment so that all of the communities in Southern California shall be on a mixed gas basis.

"Chief Engineer Osborne, of the Board of Public Utilities at Los Angeles, at the recent hearing, demanded that a portion of the natural gas now distributed by the Southern Counties Gas Company to the various communities such as Santa Ana, where natural gas has been utilized for years be taken from these communities and turned over to the gas companies supplying the city of Los Angeles, in order that the people of Los Angeles might continue to enjoy gas with the 815 British thermal units heat content. He also contended that the communities now served with straight natural gas by the Southern Counties should be put upon a mixed gas basis, and that the Southern Counties Gas Company should build artificial gas plants in the various communities in order to accomplish this end.

Move Bitterly Opposed
"The attorney for the Southern Counties Gas company bitterly opposed this contention of the City of Los Angeles, and brought out the fact that if the Commission should take away from the Southern Counties the natural gas which it is supplying to various cities, the result would not only lessen the quality of gas which it is giving to its consumers, but also practically double the cost of gas to its consumers with only a slight resultant benefit to the people of Los Angeles. The Southern Counties Gas Company stated that for many years it had gone out into the oil fields and brought to its communities the superior natural gas product, and that the communities of Orange county served by the company had been assisted materially in their growth and development through the supply of this superior quality of gas, and that it was manifestly unfair for the city of Los Angeles to ask that these communities now be deprived of the benefits of natural gas in order that the city of Los Angeles might have a little more natural gas for its own use.

Southern Counties Will Fight
"It was also contended by the Southern Counties Gas company that the city of Los Angeles had no inherent right to the use of natural gas and that the communities served by the Southern Counties Gas company which, in the main, are situated near the natural gas fields and have been for years served with natural gas, should continue to do so as long as the gas is available. The Southern Counties Gas Company's attorney further stated that the company would absolutely resist any attempt to take away from it any of the natural gas which was needed for distribution throughout its own territory."

CLOSED SHOP IS HIT BY C. OF C.

The Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce is officially on record as opposed to a closed shop program in this city.

The board of directors has taken a stand on the question of the hour, and it is unequivocally committed to combat any action or movement that has for its purpose the promotion of the closed shop program.

Resolutions have been adopted which set out clearly the attitude of the organization. They are as follows:

"Resolved, that the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce, by its board of directors, duly assembled, hereby declares itself as favoring the "open shop" policy as American and preserving to every man who can work, opportunity to earn a living and assist in bringing production back to normal; and, be it further

"Resolved, that class consciousness must be abolished and the fact established that our interests are identical—that we are all labor, yet capital; that strikes are economic wastes to everybody and that our interests are mutual."

The resolutions were presented to the board after H. C. Head, Joe H.
Stout and Mac O. Robbins had been appointed a committee to prepare them.

At the same meeting at which the directors took this action they appointed Fred Rafferty, Chas. A. Riggs and T. E. Stephenson as a committee to co-operate with the Red Cross in a drive to be made later.

Taking up the matter of larger grounds for an auto camping park and better accommodations, the board referred the subject to the park committee for investigation and report.

The following applications for membership were acted upon favorably:
M. M. Hearn, W. H. White, G. A.
Schweiger, J. A. Harman and L. C.
Neal.

SCOTT IS HELD ON NEW CHECK CHARGE

Charles S. Scott, who was recently arraigned here on a charge of passing bad checks, was today held under a similar charge from Anaheim.

He is said to have passed an alleged bad check to W. E. Helling, who runs a cigar store and pool hall there. In the other complaints, it was alleged that Scott had post-dated checks, and had said he would have the money in the bank to cover them.

In the present instance, however, it is alleged that Scott merely asked Helling to cash the check for him, which Helling did. Scott did not post-date the Helling check, it is said, nor did he intimate to Helling that he did not have ample funds to cover it in the bank. It is understood that Scott will probably be prosecuted on the Helling charge, rather than on the other complaints returned against him last week.

Scott is being held in the county jail. His attorney is Morris A.
Cain.

TWO WILL HANG FOR MURDER OF SHERIFF

PENDLETON, Ore., Oct. 9.—Elvin D. Kerby and John Laffean were sentenced by Judge G. W. Phelps to be hanged December 3 for the murder of Sheriff Till Taylor in a jail break July 25.

For the same crime, Emmet M.
Bancroft has been sentenced to be hanged November 5, and Irvin Leroy Stoop and Floyd L. Henderson have been sentenced to life imprisonment.
Attorney Charles L. Bolin said a group of women sympathizers were raising a fund to appeal the cases of Kerby and Laffean to the Supreme Court. A new trial was denied today by Judge Phelps.

THE BROTHERHOODS

After the summer's vacation the various brotherhood organizations of Santa Ana's churches are beginning their meetings for the winter.

Many very fine speakers have been brought to Santa Ana through the brotherhoods, and many will be brought here this winter and in the years to come. Through these speakers the men of the churches gain inspiration and are kept on their toes religiously.

While the messages from outside speakers have been of great value, some of the best meetings are those in which the men of the church get together and talk things over. The impetus given to church work through live organized bodies is of real consequence.

These gatherings have produced a finer fellowship among the men of the community who have availed themselves of the many opportunities for attendance. Through the meetings friendships have been built up, and men have come to a realization of their individual duties to their churches. The brotherhoods have been a force in the community, a force toward making Santa Ana a better place in which to live.

WORTH WHILE

Every community has its points of historic interest. In the eastern village there is the site of the first church or school—perhaps the very building itself, weather-beaten and old; the tree under which Indian or slave parley was held; the dock where the first steamboat landed; or the famous resting place on the old pioneer trail. When such places are plainly marked with tablets of brass or stone, the traveler can recognize them, and the townspeople can become conversant with them and with their town history.

New England is fairly well sown with such markers, but as the course of history takes its way westward there are many gaps which patriotic citizens would do well to supply.

Sources of civic pride which will be a revelation await searchers for points of local historical importance; riches of interest and education lie in their discovery and visible designation.

Here in California chief interest since American occupation has been centered in the missions built by the Franciscan padres. One of those missions is located in Orange county.
In its yard, largely through the efforts of Father O'Sullivan, a memorial has been erected. The mission itself, of course, is a landmark, and links our California of today with the olden days of romance.

The mission is but one of many points of historical interest in the county. Some of those points are located in out-of-the-way places, known to only a few of the pioneers still living. A systematic effort to locate these points and to mark them permanently would be a service worth while.

THE HARRIS BILL

Orange county's citizenship should,
and no doubt will, cast a heavy vote in favor of the passage of Amendment No. 2, which will appear on the November ballot. This measure is best known in California as the Harris bill. It was drawn up and is designed to provide for complete enforcement of prohibition laws.

The eighteenth amendment to the constitution of the United States establishes the prohibition, but, instead of being self-enforcing, entrusts the duty of enforcement both to the various state governments as well as to the federal government. The federal government has passed an enforcement law, but is encountering great difficulties in carrying it out.
Prohibition Agent Considine, declares:

"It's pretty hard to enforce the law in a big state like California with only twenty men. I could use a thousand men in San Francisco alone.
Lack of funds precludes the hiring of more prohibitions agents."

Meanwhile the California state enforcement act, though temporarily held up under a referendum by the liquor interests, is now to be voted on. This act, when passed, will without additional expense, add to the scanty force of twenty federal prohibition agents, the ample force of 20,000 state peace officers now in the employ of our cities and counties.

Experience has shown that these state peace officers do not act to suppress illegal liquor traffic unless backed by a state law to be enforced by state courts. Such a law is the "Harris Bill," fair, complete, and carefully worked out to make prohibition, not an empty name, but an accomplished fact.

But if, through apathy or inaction, the Harris bill should be defeated and law enforcement should thus fail to gain the assistance of our local peace officers, it would give renewed assurance to every "bootlegger" and "blindpiger" in the state, and lawlessness and law-breaking would increase by leaps and bounds.

It would breed in our children a feeling that California will tolerate a defiance of our United States constitution, the supreme law of the land. There is no surer way to undermine the foundation of our government.

THE METAL COW

A brand new metal "cow" has been installed on the navy hospital ship, Relief. The machine takes milk powder and water, mixes them with the proper proportions of butter fat, pas-teurizes and emulsifies them and produces a rich, creamy milk, difficult to distinguish from the farmyard bossy's best brand. A freezer in connection with the device makes it possible to have ice cream "direct from the cow."

The great advantage of the contrivance is that it makes possible a supply of fresh, sweet milk no matter what climatic conditions may be,
and this really marks an epoch in sea life, where the restrictions of diet must be considerable under the most favorable conditions.

The metal "cow" deserves a place among the blue ribbon winners of the herd, for she helps to overcome the difficulties of climate and of isolation.

Regaining Confidence

San Bernardino Sun

Baseball as a national sport sustained the hardest blow ever aimed at it when it was proven by their own admission that star players sold out themselves, their team, the public and even the small boys of the land who idolized them. But three games on the diamond at Ebbets Field this week has done much to regain in public confidence what had been lost, and the umpire's cry of "Play Ball!" is again enlisting the attention of some millions of fans from coast to coast.

Experts who have watched the progress of the first three games of the world's series at Brooklyn are not only persuaded the games are on the square—they know it. Probably in no preceding series has there been so many chances where one player's weakness might have changed the results, but not a player has failed, teams have pulled out of some astonishing "holes," and the total scores are lower than in any recent series.

There may not be the big betting that marked former meets between the pennant winners of the rival leagues, but that is of no consequence—indeed, the less wagering of big sums there is, the less chance for player to be corrupted, or even tempted.

It was worse than a shame that public confidence should have had cause to be shattered. The gamblers ruined racing by commercializing it and making it crooked, there is never a big boxing contest in recent years but the finger of suspicion is aimed at it, and that baseball should have been threatened was to put a blur on the one spot that appeals to millions, first because of the sport itself, and second, because it had been kept clean.

Calling for Help

Visalia Delta

Agricultural and political circles have been considerably stirred by the dispatch echoing the cry for tariff from the peanut growers in the southern states. The idea that the "Solid South" should demand a tariff for anything is apparently being absorbed with difficulty.

An increase of 1,600 per cent in imports of peanuts over 1919, which reduced the price below that of production, is said to have brought this change of sentiment through the south. Many American products are facing a similar situation because of an unfavorable rate of exchange and cheap labor abroad.

Old Pals Are Best

Plan for Next Year

Riverside Press

The educational system of the United States is confronted by a more serious situation than that of any of the other leading nations of the world.
This is the statement of Philander Claxton, federal commissioner of education.

The school year opens with a lack of accommodations for 3,000,000 pupils and a shortage of 75,000 elementary and 15,000 high school instructors. From one-third to two-fifths of the teachers employed lack adequate preparation. While salary conditions have been bettered here and there, the majority of schedules are too low. Housing for teachers is far from sufficient in most localities.

Great Britain provides a subsidy so that teachers can live while learning, and has increased all salaries 30 per cent. France has built her first new school houses in her devastated districts and increased all salaries 75 to 100 per cent. Even Germany, Brazil and Argentina show more favorable prospects for education under the right auspices than the United States.

Again the school children of this great country must limp through a year under conditions menacing to scholarship, citizenship and health.
Again the nation has relegated the interests of its children to the background while it fought for progress along lines not half so vital nor so promising.
It may be too late to set matters right for this year, but it is not too early to begin constructive plans for another year, and these must be made and continuously enlarged if coming Americans are to hold their own with the offspring of other nations.

THE LITTLE ATTIC OF DREAMS.

From moonrise unto moonset
I leave this world behind,
And steal into the labyrinths
And chambers of my mind.

Down long, dim corridors I pass, Through arches and through rooms,
By temples and by lonely lakes,
Past gardens and past tombs.

By sunny, marble terraces,
By lily pools of sleep,
By glades all full of bird song
Or wrapped in silence deep.

And up a crumbling, shaded stair,
Where roses bloom and fade,
Into a tiny attic room,
Where broken dreams are laid.

Each night I come quite silently;
Each night I softly go
And kiss each timid little thought That none will ever know.

From moonrise unto moonset
I steal away to find
Those little, old, dear, dead dreams that lie In the attic of my mind.

—Vivienne Dayrell, in Poetry Review, London.

TODAY'S TALK

THINGS THAT ARE BETTER THAN WE UNDERSTAND.

Much of our daily effort is wrapped in a kind of secret covering.
We strive toward hope for things. But we are never wholly sure that they will come to us as expected. Yet how many times we are able to say in our hearts that the result was far better than we planned or expected.

Most things are better than we presently understand them to be.
General Grant settled down to be a country store keeper in a small middle west town. The future looked very dark. But it was better than he ever dared to imagine! For soon he was to lead great armies for an intensely sacred cause—and later to be President of the greatest free nation in history.

Time is really too precious to waste in questionings. The secret of your strength lies largely in your ability to decide and then to wait the results—feeling sure that they will be all right—if you have done the best you knew.

Most people are much better than we understand them to be.
We must remember that final judgment must not be made from appearances or from a glance at surfaces. The number of fish in a body of water cannot be told by its depth or by its outside surroundings.
People are all the time giving up positions of great advantage, because they do not take into consideration the fact that they may stand on stronger soil than they think.

Before you blame or censure, try hard to understand—and before you make too radical a move, try to remember that your present place may be much better than you understand.

Move in confidence—and feed your heart upon much hope!

NEXT ROTARY MEETING TO BE OPEN SESSION

The meeting of the Rotary club next Tuesday at James' is to be a combination Chamber of Commerce and Rotary club session, with the coming Chamber of Commerce membership campaign as the topic for discussion.

Sylvester L. Weaver, former president of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce, now acting as head of that organization, and a past president of the Rotary club, will be the principal speaker at the luncheon.

Weaver is well versed in Chamber of Commerce activities and will discuss the value of the local organization to this community.
The meeting will be open to any resident of the city who wants to attend and Chamber of Commerce members particularly are urged to be present.

Arguments Are Presented Here On Proposed State Legislation

Statements for or against any of the amendments or initiative or referendum measures to be voted on at the November election will be published under this heading. The Register desires that the questions at issue be presented fairly and fully. Brevity has strength, and repetition should be avoided. Publication shall not be construed as an expression of the views of The Register.

THE UNIVERSITY TAX

(From the Riverside Press.)

The state university authorities are using the students of the institution in a very aggressive and offensive manner in scattering propaganda in behalf of amendment No. 12 which provides for an ad valorem tax for the support of the university in lieu of a biennial appropriation by the legislature. Students from every county in the state have sent out appeals to the newspapers in their county urging support of the amendment; one from the Riverside county students was published in the Press a few days ago; and the students have been organized to write articles in support of the amendment to newspapers and newspapers opposing the amendment which may appear in their home papers.

For instance the Press is in receipt of a letter from Charles D.
Samuels of Riverside in reply to an article that appeared in this paper a few days ago. Mr. Samuels says:

The amendment is mighty important to Southern California and it will probably be the first to suffer in January if the present measure fails. The students, 46 per cent of whom are either entirely or partially self supporting, are the others who will feel the pinch next semester to the extent of $50 per semester tuition, which will make free education a mockery.

Mr. Samuels has been pretty well coached, but it is a question whether this talk of a tuition charge is not a bluff. If the university really is a state institution it has no right to charge tuition fee, any more than a public school or a state normal school has that right. If the university is not a state institution, what right has it to claim a preferred share in the income of the state to the extent of four or five million dollars annually?

The university authorities can take either horn of this dilemma they prefer.

Mr. Samuels says further:
Surely you are not in favor of maintaining the present system of begging the funds for our state university every two years, and being superseded by those men who can deliver definite political prestige in exchange for the state funds?

The writer would answer this query by propounding another. What is there so peculiar and sacred about the state university that it should be put in a different class from the normal schools, the public schools, the state hospitals, the orphanages of the state and other institutions or agencies supported by the state? All these come to the legislature not as "beggars," but as worthy and necessary activities of the state. Their claims are presented with dignity and considered with liberality and sympathy. The university now proposes that it has to be separated from every other activity claiming state support and be given an income guaranteed by an ad valorem tax.
The legislature has been remarkably liberal with the university in the past and there is no reason to expect that it will not continue to be in the future. It is generally understood that the university is so well and ably represented in the legislature at every session by alumni who are members that it receives more liberal treatment than any other department of state government or any other interest, educational, corrective or reformatory.

The Press believes heartily in liberal support for the university, but it does object to the plan for getting it outlined in amendment No. 12.
Here is the most serious objection to this talk of a tuition charge is not a university support, like other state funds, comes from the great public service corporations—the railroads, power companies, banks, insurance companies, etc. The individual taxpayer pays no ad valorem tax for any state purpose. Amendment No.
12 changes all that. It relieves the public service corporations entirely of the university and by an ad valorem property tax puts the burden of raising from $4,000,000 to $5,000,- 000 annually upon the individual property holder, the owner of a small ranch or a little home. That is discrimination in the interest of "big business" with a vengeance; and the people of the state, if they understand exactly what is involved, will never stand for it.

THE PEOPLE'S FORUM

IN DEFENSE OF THE LEAGUE

Editor Register:—In the interest of fairness and just estimate and comprehension of the great question of the League of Nations would you kindly give space to Mr. Fosdick's letter as printed in the Monitor of Sept. 27?

Yours for world unity,

GEO. Y. COURTS.

To the Editor of the Christian Science Monitor: Senator Harding pronounces the League of Nations "a failure and a wreck beyond the possibility of repair," and Senator Lodge characterizes it as a "battered hulk." What are the facts?

1. The League of Nations is now composed of 39 member-nations, representing seven-eighths of the people of the globe. Practically all the nations of the world have joined it except the United States, Russia, Mexico and the ex-enemy countries. It seems probable that Germany will be admitted at the meeting of the Assembly of the League to be held at Geneva in November. It is significant that the Germans participated fully at the International Seamen's Conference of the League at Genoa; and not only the Germans, but the Austrians, Hungarians, and Bulgarians have been invited to the International Financial conference of the League at Brussels on September 24.

2. The range of the League's work may be indicated by the following schedule of its meetings. Parenthetically, it should be noted that the League's policy is to hold its meetings in as many different countries as possible. The Council of the League has held sessions in London, Paris, Rome and San Sebastian; the International Labor Conference, of the League, met at Washington; the International Seamen's Conference of the League at Genoa; the Jurists Advisory Committee at The Hague; the International Health Conference at London; the International Ports and Waterways Conference at Paris; the Armaments Commission at San Sebastian. The Financial Conference will soon meet at Brussels and the Transit Conference at Barcelona.
3. The Armaments Commission of the League (provided for by Article IX of the Covenant) has been organized and is now at work on the beginning of a plan of universal disarmament for submission to the nations of the world. Obviously the United States is not represented on this commission.

4. A permanent mandates commission has been appointed, as provided for in Article 22 of the Covenant, to supervise the administration of the territories and peoples freed from German and Turkish rule. The application of this new principle is vitally important to us, not only from the standpoint of freedom of trade for American commerce, but still more from the standpoint of establishing a system of justice which will prevent backward countries from becoming the tinder-box of future wars.

5. The plans for a permanent Court of International Justice have been completed and are ready for submission to the Assembly of the League at its meeting in November.
Mr. Root served as a member of this particular subdivision of the League's activity.

6. The Council will place before the Assembly in November the proposal for a joint committee to work out the plans and principles of economic blockade as the strongest guarantee of world peace and the greatest restraint on a bandit nation that the countries of the world have ever agreed to put into effect. Unless the United States is a member of the League it cannot join in forging this powerful weapon.

7. The Financial Conference called by the League of Nations for the last of this month is the most important international gathering since the conference of Versailles. The League has brought together a mass of information on world economic matters such as has never been available before, covering such subjects as international finance, credits, currency, exchange, etc. At this conference which touches the interest and well-being of every nation of the world, the United States will not be officially represented.

8. Single-handed in Poland, with funds provided by its members, the League is fighting the typhus epidemic. The estimated cost of this work is $15,000,000. The United States has no part in the financing.

9. The League is undertaking the task of repatriating the half million prisoners of war Russians, Germans, Poles, Hungarians, Roumanians, etc.—who, due to lack of transit facilities, are still retained in enemy countries. It is estimated that 100,000 of these men will be returned to their homes before Christmas.

10. The League has established an International Health Office, a bureau to fight the international exploitation of opium and other drugs, and a division to suppress the international trade in women and girls.

These points represent the seven months of its existence. It is far from "wrecked." It is going ahead most courageously, rapidly organizing its work, regardless of the United States. We cannot destroy it, nor can we substitute another League in its place. Indeed, the latter confession is the sheerest absurdity. We have only two choices; to stay outside of a community of nations organized for co-operation and peace and thereby lose our whole place in the world, to say nothing of our own soul as a nation, or to come into the League (with reservations, if we think necessary) and put our shoulders to the wheel in all those great movements for which American foreign policy has always stood.
(Signed) RAYMOND B. FOSDICK, New York City.

HOME BREW VICTIM

JEROME, Ariz., Antonio Bertazzo is the last of the local victims of the liquor. For a week he had been drunk on a brew of his own concoction, as in his cabin was found grain mash which had been fermented, though no trace of a still could be found.

The cracking plant at the house of the Santa Ana Walnut Growers Association will be opened October 18, at 7 a. m., according to announcement today by J. V. Woodside, sec-

The beginning on that date will require two hundred women, according to Woodside.

Forty-five women are already employed at the plant, sorting culls.

It is expected the number of women that will be employed will reach three hundred during the height of the season.

The third car of walnuts to be

ALASKA MURDER FIXED ON FORMER L. A. MAN

JUNEAU, Alaska, Oct. 9.—F. C. Lilly was recently found guilty of first degree murder in connection with the death of his partner, C. G. Woodworth, drowned when the gas boat Seabreeze burned and sank near Port Walter, Alaska, August 29. The jury recommended life imprisonment. Lilly refused to testify in his own defense, relying on his statement, made when he was arraigned, that the burning of the Seabreeze was accidental. Lilly, federal officers alleged, was convicted of manslaughter in Los Angeles, Cal., in 1906, and served a term in Folsom prison.

Elocution Pupils in Recital

Miss Elita Hale presented her elocution class in recital at Birch Park yesterday afternoon, with many friends of the pupils as guests.

Vivian Larson, Mildred Paul, Leona James and Leona Moon presented an excellent program, consisting of eleven readings and a pantomime, all of which brought many compliments from those in attendance for the remarkable progress these talented little misses have made in the four lessons they have taken.

Games and a picnic supper were enjoyed at the close of the program.

Jolly Costume Party
Mrs. W. Stillens entertained last evening at her home at 1019 West Pine street, for a number of the employees of Rankin's dry goods store, all of the guests and the hostess being in costume for the occasion, which added much to the merriment of the evening. Miss Larson won the prize for the cleverest costume. She was dressed as an English dandy, monocle and all.

Games were enjoyed in the course of the evening, and a ballot vote for presidential candidates was taken, resulting in Harding being the favorite. Doughnuts and cider were served as refreshment.

Those in the party, besides the hostess, were Mmes. Tralle, W. Wycokoff, McConnell, Emily Merker, Rose Walker, Misses Wilson, Gallagher, Elsie Williams, Peterson, Yensen, Larson, Pearl Kimball, Ruby Kimball, Belle Woodside, Carrie Miller, Ethel Coffman and Inez Cooley.

Meeting in G. A. H. Hall Thursday afternoon, members of Sedgwick social club, W. R. C., enjoyed an unusually interesting afternoon with the president, Mrs. Sarah Brown, presiding.

It being the time announced for the visit of the department inspector, Mrs. Gertrude Daul of Oakland, to make her official call, the attendance was very large.

Several applications for membership were received, and at this meeting three candidates were initiated into the order.

There were several visitors from Orange present and two ladies from Minnesota.

Instructive Masquerade Party.
Members of the Latina Sodalitas Club of the High School gave a very enjoyable masquerade party in the music room of the high school Thursday evening at which an instructive program was the feature of the entertainment.

The Caesar class of the club presented ten scenes from Roman mythology and history, and those present were asked to guess the episode that each represented. Miss Mary Hendrie was awarded the prize for guessing the largest number.

Following is the program given:
1. Music—two violins and piano.
2. Antony and Cleopatra.
3. Cornelia and her jewels.
4. Perseus and Medusa.

TOBACCO KING NAMED IN LOVE BALM ACTION

NEW YORK, Oct. 8.—Some mysterious enshrouds a suit for $500,000 filed in the Federal Court against Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen, multimillionaire head of the British-American Tobacco company. The papers accuse the tobacco king of being a "love pirate," and laconically state: "Action is for alienation of affections and criminal conversations." The suit is filed by "Monte" Brice, a song writer.

The action is expected to throw the dare of wide publicity on, and provide a sequel to, the romance of the middle-aged Sir Cunliffe-Owen and Helen Elizabeth Oliver Brice, wife of "Monte" Brice, 25 years of age, and only three years ago an obscure "super" in screen productions.

The story of how this young woman won the heart of the British nobleman, reputed to possess a fortune of $40,000,000, will soon be told in open court, it is expected. When the story is told it will disclose events which led to the secret divorce of Mrs. Brice on November 8, 1918, and her marriage on December 31 of the same year to Sir Hugo Cunliffe-Owen, who, report has it, spent more than $4,000,000 for jewels and other gifts to his beautiful bride.

H. T. Marshall, Brice's attorney, made clear the purpose of his client, in his notice which informs the Englishman's counsel that an effort will be made to place the case on the November calendar.

POLY, ST. VINCENTS CLASH ON S. A. GRID

Eleven huskies from St. Vincent's college of Los Angeles were scheduled to clash with an equal number of football players from Santa Ana high school on the local gridiron this afternoon.

The team representing St. Vincent's was believed to be of more than ordinarily substantial construction and it was predicted would cover the ground in lively fashion. The team also was known to have several good plays which they were expected to execute in a snappy manner.

The locals were limited as to the number of plays available in the game, as Coach Morrison had decided to hold them back for the more important games later in the season. It was believed, however, the plays used by the team would go through with "pep" and fight.

DRIVES HUDSON SIX YEARS, IS SATISFIED

These days, touring across the country is no longer regarded as a great feat; it never loses its interest for Albert H. Emerson.

"The spirit of restlessness seems to possess everyone, this past year, particularly," he said.

Emerson, who is County Attorney of Redwood county, Minnesota, with his wife and their two fine boys of twelve and fourteen years, motored recently with their Hudson 6-40 from their home in Lambert, Minnesota, to the Pacific coast.

"This is the second long trip we have taken with our car," says Emerson, "although of course during its six years of loyal service our Hudson has done some little jaunting in out locality back home. Our speedometer now registers 31,890. The car was just six years old on Friday, August the 13th.

"This last trip with my family was 4129 miles. Starting on August 7 we followed the Black and Yellow trail through South Dakota and Wyoming, then to Spokane and Seattle, Washington, and over the Columbia highway to Portland. Visiting Mt. Ranier and Grants Pass en route we then took the coast route to Eureka, San Francisco and on to Los Angeles. We had no mechanical trouble during the entire trip and made a leisurely, comfortable journey, visiting every point of interest along the way. Even though our Hudson is six years old we do not expect to part with it for some time to come. It's grown to be an old family friend that never fails."

PROSECUTION URGED IN COX FUND PROBE
DAYTON, Ohio, Oct. 9.—Recommendation of prosecution under the Ohio corrupt practices act was made here by Senator Walter Edge at the conclusion of a two-day investigation into funds of former campaigns to elect James M. Cox governor of Ohio.

"I do not care to discuss the things which have been made clear before this committee," Senator Edge said. "The matter now is up to the prosecuting attorney. We have clearly established that there have been violations of the corrupt practices act of Ohio and irregular procedure in Cox campaigns of the past, but these are not within our jurisdiction. We cannot conduct the prosecutions, but steps should be taken immediately to act upon the evidence disclosed at the hearings before this committee."

Senators Edge and Atlee Pomerene late today concluded their investigation of a $37,000 fund contributed toward Cox's 1916 campaign, $26,000 of which was expended. Testimony also developed how Miami conservancy district funds had been looted to repay the money contributed by the Dayton Metal Products company. Under the Ohio corrupt practices act corporations are prohibited from contributing toward political campaigns, but steps should be taken immediately to act upon the evidence disclosed at the hearings before this committee.

Admissions before the committee today established that corporation money had been used to further the 1916 election of Cox as Governor of Ohio and that money given three political organizations by a corporation had been used in support of the Cox candidacy, but its real source concealed in reporting campaign funds and expenditures to the Secretary of State.

HELP! 200 ARMORED KNIGHTS ON MOTORCYCLES FORM 'MOB'

By ERNEST RICHARDS
Orange county motorcyclists were well represented in the "motorcycle mob" scene filmed recently at Hollywood as a feature in one of William Fox latest productions, "A Connecticut Yankee in Sir Arthur's Court." Six of the actors were Orange County Motorcyclist Club members; Glen Copeland, president; Ernest Richards, vice-president; Henry Gaittan, captain; David ("Fat") Rouse, sergeant at arms; "Short" Heaton and R. S. Stearns.

They arrived on location just in time to get their costumes. On account of the many applicants the suits were in big demand. The motorcyclist actors wore lights and a heavy steel armor, including helmets, plumes, spears, flags and breast plates.

Different from the knights of old, these gladiators rode snorting steeds of steel, motorcycles being their mounts. Two hundred or more motors of every make imaginable took part.

Some Were Experts
There was also every class of rider. Some were experts, others were amateurs, but the largest part of them were "dizzy" pavement riders, which, commonly speaking, means riders who keep to pavement all the time and think they can ride but when dirt roads are encountered do not possess the necessary riding ability to stay on top of their mounts.

This can not be said about the Orange county riders. One of the "dizzy" riders became so bewildered when he "hit" dirt road that he slid off the back of his machine and left it to fate. This particular incident proved quite a thrill, because the motor went bounding up the road, wide open, and without a rider for a distance of a hundred feet or more. In the wild dash for liberty it passed two other machines by a very narrow margin, finally running off the road and putting an end to the wild scramble. However, no one was injured.

Like Battle Royal
As for work, there was hardly any. The knights rode in mobs in, out and around the castle, making it look like a battle royal. Then they charged up a rough, hilly road. This was done three times before it was registered right by the cameras.

Nine cameras were on the job, all working continuously throughout the maneuvering of the motors. Two hundred motorcycles filing up a mountain side two abreast, that was the action the photographers were trying to "get" correctly. If one man dropped out it would spoil the whole scene and would have to be done all over.

The people of Hollywood got an unexpected treat as the "knights" paraded the streets with their full armor. Although the parade was not advertised and no time had been set for its coming, many people crowded the streets to witness the procession. The mob (for that is all they could be justly called), rode back to the studio, changed clothes and received checks.

LABOR BODY SEEKING TO UNITE FACTORIES

FRESNO, Cal., Oct. 9.—The twenty-first annual convention of the California State Federation of Labor will drag to a close here this afternoon with the so-called conservatives and radicals both satisfied with results. An obvious effort is being made to unite all factions on a solid footing to combat labor's opponents.

While the administration forces are satisfied with having kept control of the convention and re-elected their officers, the so-called radicals are going home content with having seen their leading resolutions adopted. Among these is one asking that labor be given a share in management of industry.

Another "insists upon restoration George G. Kidwell, chairman of the Farmer-Labor party said, "we are especially pleased that the convention gave recognition to all factions on the eve of a legislative year, when it is expected the forces of labor will be confronted with a large number of reactionary measures fostered by the enemies of organized labor."

For the Cool Days— an Essex Sedan

THE season when the Essex Sedan will be most enjoyed and appreciated is at hand.

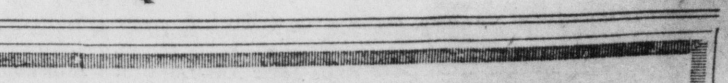

Its protection and comfort are genuine necessities for the growing class of automobile owners who rely altogether on motor transit to and from their business affairs.

Commodious and luxurious, it combines the riding comfort of the large costly car, with the advantages of economy and easy handling, exclusive to light cars.

Plenty of surplus power makes the Essex Sedan accelerate quickly, and gives it easy dominance in the hills.

That performance ability is especially prized by owners. For in the case of the Essex it removes the objections long held against enclosed bodies on light cars, that they have insufficient power for the additional weight, which results in sluggish performance.

LAST DAY DRAWS CROWDS AT FAIR

Today was the closing day of the Orange County Fair at Huntington Beach, with a grand confetti carnival planned for tonight as the closing feature of the big annual products exposition.

The crowds began arriving at the Huntington Beach fair grounds early this morning and another day of large crowds and interesting sights was in prospect. The old settlers' reunion and states picnics on the beach were features of the day and attracted many, not alone from Orange county, but from adjoining districts as well. Prizes were to be awarded this afternoon to the oldest man, oldest woman, and oldest couple attending the fair.

Yesterday's attendance was estimated at between 10,000 and 12,000, including more than 500 county school teachers and more than 5,000 school students.

Every one of these people returned home last night enthusiastic about the fair, and it was considered not improbable that today's attendance might even exceed yesterday's showing.

Hunter Is Fined $50 On Charge of Shooting Quail Out of Season

A quail is a quail, and a dove is a dove, according to Judge Cox, who yesterday fined E. R. Peterkin, of Brea, $50 on a charge of shooting quail out of season. The judge's remark followed a statement by W. E. Adkinson, game warden, that hunters go out late in the dove season and under the pretense of shooting doves, shoot quail.

Adkinson says he has had considerable difficulty in getting the hunters to stop. It was in this manner that Peterkin arrived to pot his game. It was said he came to shoot nearby the warden's house once too often, for this time the warden happened to be home, and, by a ruse, succeeded in getting between Peterkin and his machine. On seeing Adkinson, Peterkin slipped off his coat, the pockets of which were said to have been filled with quail. Adkinson saw him do it, picked it up, and halted Peterkin just as the latter was about to drive away, it is said. Peterkin paid the fine.

CONTINUE HEARING IN ABERNATHY CASE

The case of Joseph R. Abernathy, former district superintendent of schools at Anaheim, against the Board of Trustees of Anaheim, has been postponed for hearing until October 22, by Judge Z. B. West of Department 1 of the Superior court. Abernathy's complaint alleged that he was given a four year contract by the school trustees of Anaheim on June 9, 1919, and that he was given notice of dismissal without a hearing on May 18, of this year on charge of alleged inefficiency. His petition asks for reinstatement and specific performance of the contract entered into between him and the trustees, and also for four months back pay which he has not received since dismissal. The original hearing of the case had been set for yesterday.

CASE IS DROPPED
Joe Burrue, who was recently arrested on an embezzlement charge, following the alleged sale of a machine on which he was said to have been making part payments, was released following a strengthening of the misunderstanding and a dismissal of the charges. J. J. De Vaux, who originally asked to have the warrant sworn out, yesterday asked to have the matter dismissed. J. W. Tubbs appeared in Burrue's behalf.

NEW BOY SCOUT TROOP FORMED

A new Boy Scout troop with seventeen members was organized last night at the Elks building. This is the first troop organized since the awakening of widespread interest here in Boy Scout work. Others will doubtless be organized very soon, as it is the plan of the County Boy Scout council to extend the work to at least 500 boys.

The troop organized last night is one fathered by the local Elks lodge, which has taken out thirty-two associate memberships in the county council. William McKay, circulation manager of the Register, is scoutmaster for the new troop. The scout committee members are W. C. Jerome, E. V. S. Pomeroy and Fred A. Ross.

The seventeen boys who last night joined this troop are James True, George McConnell, Arthur Norman, Willard White, John Ladieu, Clair Hanson, Harland Kittle, Alfred Kimmel, Edgar Johnson, Charles Remsburg, Laurence Walbridge, Robert Nelson, Harold Vieira, Will Homan, Russell Tibbitts, Gordon Quisel and Edward Weaver. Any other boy who desires to become a charter member of this troop may present his application now to McKay.

One of these boys, George McConnell, had considerable experience in the work at Pomona, where he formerly lived. He is advanced as far as a star scoutship.

This troop is to meet every Friday evening in a room in the basement of the Elks building.

At the meeting last night talks were made to the boys by M. B. Wellington, president of the county council of Boy Scouts, and by W. C. Jerome, a member of the executive committee of the Boy Scouts.

ARE FITTING UP DISPLAY ROOMS

The Santa Ana Motor company, local distributors for Stutz, Apperson and Columbus automobiles, has virtually completed organization plans and is making ready the new display rooms at Birch and Fifth streets. F. W. Brown, formerly traveling salesman for the Western Wholesale Drug company of Los Angeles, and L. M. Claypool, for several years insurance agent in Santa Ana, are the promoters of the new establishment. The building now occupied by the Santa Ana Motor Car company was formerly the distributing point in Orange county for Gardner cars. It is said the Santa Ana Motor Car company will be one of the finest and best equipped automobile establishments in this part of the country. Nothing has been spared to make the display spaces roomy and well-equipped, it is said.

One feature of the new Columbia is the difference of each car in the coach work as it reaches the dealer. A varied display of colors marks the Columbia's distinction.

The new Apperson four-door sedanette has also created a sensation among automobile owners, it is said. The form fitting cushions and the convenience to passengers in getting in and out of the car has made this car one of the finest for all round use, according to Brown.

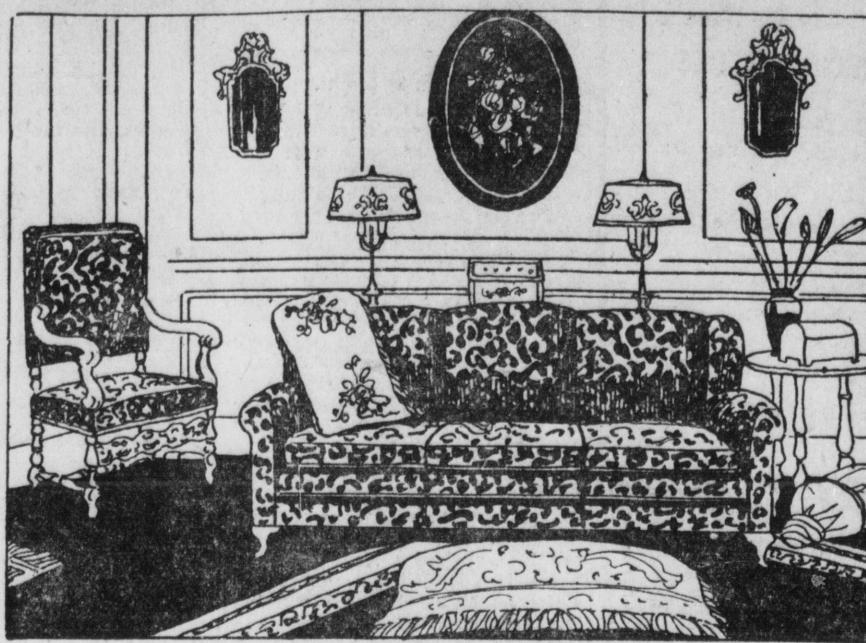

Both Brown and Claypool are now in the automobile business. Both have had considerable business experience and are sparing neither time nor money in building up the new agency. In the rear of the display room, the company is installing a large repair shop. New machinery is being set up daily and will be ready for business in a very short time. Expert mechanics have been employed. All kinds of automobile repair work will be handled including laths, ignition and cylinder work.

TENTATIVE DRAFT NEARS COMPLETION

The preparation of a city charter to be submitted to the voters of Santa Ana will be hastened to completion. Probably next Friday night it will be drawn up and ready for final revision by the Board of Freeholders, elected to prepare the charter.

At a meeting last night, many articles of the proposed charter were read over and considered. The work was rather of a routine nature, most of the important points in the charter having been decided upon at previous meetings. In order to simplify the remainder of the work, the freeholders chairman, W. L. Grubb, was authorized to select two other members of the board to meet with him and the board's attorney, Clyde Bishop, and to prepare the tentative draft of the charter complete, including the articles already passed upon.

AUTO SHOW DEPARTMENT AT FAIR ATTRACTS THRONGS

BANKERS PRAISE SOUNDNESS OF AUTO AGENTS' BUSINESS

Financial Men at Meeting Here Admit Motor Industry Second Largest

FACTS, FIGURES GIVEN

Exchange of Views, Mutually Profitable, Marks Get-Together Meet

Admitting that the automobile industry is the second largest industry in the United States, that they never had suffered financial loss by reason of handling automobile paper and that they recognized the automobile dealers of the county as men of good business acumen, integrity and activity, representatives of various of the county banks last night told the auto dealers that they were "with them" and had been and would continue to take care of them to the fullest possible extent consistent with regard for the interests of other lines of business demanding money and credits.

The bankers were guests of the Motor Car, Truck and Tractor Dealers' craft of the Orange County Automobile Trades association at a dinner meeting held in the community house of the First Christian church. The dinner was served by the ladies of the church. It was a get-together meeting and it brought out very clearly that the dealers and bankers are not very far apart.

Here's Complete 'Dope' On Just Where Your Auto Money Goes

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 9 — There's no news in this story. It's about how much more it costs to keep an automobile than it used to. Everyone has a fair idea of that.

But the Pickwick Stages, Inc., has reduced the thing to figures—something that most people decided couldn't be done.

Here are the figures: Gasoline, eight per cent. Tires, twenty-five per cent.

New parts for repairs, ten to ninety per cent, according to the make of the car, the part and a few other things.

Garage labor, ten to thirty-three per cent, according to the location of the garage and the work required.

Rent of leased cars, ten to twenty per cent.

1921 MODELS OF PAIGE ON EXHIBITION HERE

J. E. Headley is showing 1921 models of the Paige Light Six, having this week received a carload shipment consisting of sedan, roadster and two touring cars. The cars are right up to the minute in automobile lines. They are on the floor at the garage at the corner of Bush and Fifth streets.

E. A. Evans & Co., Southern California distributors for the Paige, will make a special display of the 1921 Heavy Six in Los Angeles during the next two weeks. With the light car on exhibition here and the heavy in Los Angeles, local people will have the opportunity of investigating the full line of the new output of the Paige plant.

FURTHER VIEWS GIVEN BY FINE ON PARKING

Repainting of Lines Showing 'Stalls' Meets With His Approval

By HORACE FINE

(Automobile Editor of the Register). Well, what do you know about that? The city council has "done gone and done it."

The council has ordered the parking spaces on the more prominent business streets of the city repainted and brightened so that motorists can see the lines at night.

The city council took this action right in face of the fact that in my article last week on the 'auto parking hog' I tried to prove an alibi for the council in connection with the dimness of the lines of the parking spaces—tried to point out that the city exchequer was at such a low ebb that money was not available to meet the expense of repainting the 'stalls'.

I surely have no kick coming—and I am certain that motorists will not have. They will welcome the brighter lines, and it may be that when the work is done George Platt and George Wells will have no further complaint to make about two automobiles occupying space sufficient for three cars. Wells made a complaint to that effect to the council last Monday night and it was his complaint that brought action.

Gives New Suggestion

While I am again touching on the parking subject, I wonder if I might suggest to business men without giving offense, that those who are in the habit of driving their cars down to leave them parked all day long in front of their places of business, change their habit a little and park their machines elsewhere.

A Ford Will Do Many Things, But It Won't Swim—Joe Stout

A Ford will do many things, but it won't swim.

Joe Stout, of Knox & Stout, Ford dealers here, made this discovery at Huntington Beach. Stout was at the resort along with hundreds of other Santa Anans, attending the Orange County Fair.

"A very gallant young man was entertaining a bevy of six or seven of his young lady friends as well as himself by driving them up and down the hard, wet sand in his Ford, near the pier," said Stout today. "To add zest to the 'stunt' he swerved out into the surf."

The tide was coming in and—The tide was coming in and—the last I saw of 'Lizzie' was the tips of her ears, sticking up above the surface of the water."

GAVVY CRAVATH STARTS ON BIG GAME HUNT

Baseball Hero Greeted in North by Family; Is Coming Home Soon

C. C. ("Gavvy") Cravath, who made a good record this year as manager of the Philadelphia Nationals, is hiking for the tall timber for his annual big game hunt. Accompanying him are Joe Oeschger, of the Boston Nationals, and Irish Meusel, of the Phillies.

They are scheduled to arrive today at the mountain ranch of Oeschger in the northern part of the state. Cravath will spend a couple of weeks there.

Mr. Cravath and two daughters met "Papa" Cravath at San Francisco last night. Mrs. Cravath driving up in a new Studebaker Six. Cravath and his family will return to Laguna when the "Big Chief" of the Phillies has completed his outing.

Cravath made a good showing with his team the past season, considering the material he had, and his friends here predict big things for the Phillies next season.

That Mrs. Cravath is pleased with her new Studebaker Six is evidenced by the following letter received from her by Fred Ross, automobile sales manager for the W. F. Lutz company, Studebaker agent:

"Possibly you will be interested in the fact that I have arrived safely and that the 'Big Six' was a world beater in every way. In fact, not a thing happened to disturb me in any way! The first night I stopped at Bakersfield and didn't shift gears all the way up the Ridge Route. Just purged up about 20 miles per— with plenty of power on high. We spent the second night at Modesto and drove in a hard rain storm all the way to Oakland."

LATEST MODELS IN MOTORDOM WIN PLAUDITS OF VISITORS AT BEACH

Many New 'Prospects' Are Developed As Result of Successful Show

HELD 'GOOD BUSINESS'

Interesting Line of Many Makes of Cars, Trucks and Tractors Shown

By WAYNE GOBLE.

It is not so complete as the Auto Trades show at Anaheim last spring, but nevertheless is a good attraction the admiring attention of hundreds of visitors to the fair. The motor exhibit continued today to be the attraction for a steady stream of automobile "fans."

As far as I could learn last night, every exhibitor is happy in the development of many new "prospects" and in the consciousness of having been a factor in the unprecedented success of this fair. There is a community side to the thing as well

BANKERS PRAISE AGENTS' METHODS

of the auto dealers brought before the financiers the extent of the auto industry and facts and figures that showed that the automobile has long since passed the stage where it was considered strictly as a luxury and as a pleasure vehicle.

Atkinson Gives Suggestion
Robert Atkinson, chairman of the craft, declared that the dealers should be called transportation sellers rather than automobile, truck or tractor sellers.

John Knox discussed "The Auto in Business." Recounting the early history and various Pioneer stages of the auto industry, he brought it down to the present, presenting the point that the industry today, in both manufacturing and selling, is in the hands of trained business men which was not the fact in the early days. He developed the point that the dealers are not grabbing at each others' throats, and that the association of which he is a member, was formed for the purpose of eliminating evil practices, the result being that in the accounts of the dealers and bankers are protected against loss that might be suffered in cases where business is not conducted on a legitimate profit basis.

O. A. Haley was assigned the subject of "Conditions in the East." Haley made an extended trip to the manufacturing centers of the east several months ago, and confessed that conditions there had materially changed since then. He thought that perhaps his observations at the time of his visit would not hold good at this time, since reductions had begun on automobile prices. His observation was that manufacturers at the time of his visit were making preparation to meet just such a situation as has arisen. He predicted that a number of the standard factories would bring out new models and that they were shaping matters, looking toward production of lighter cars. He said he believed the present condition would right itself as soon as the market was cleared of cars.

Anaheim Man Speaks
"Come Clean with the Bankers" was the topic of a brief talk by Geo. Dunton of Anaheim. He advised that the dealer be square with his banker and take him into full confidence as to how his business is going. Above all, the dealer should show the banker his banker takes is made good, Dunton advised.

A. H. Sifton of Fullerton spoke on "What the Auto has done for the country." He dealt with statistics showing the extent which pleasure cars are used by farmers in business operation.

"The Used Car Problem" was handled by C. H. McCausland. He treated the subject from the standpoint that dealers should conduct their used car departments on the same clear business basis that they employ in their departments devoted to sales of new cars.

Otto Haan, former president of the county association, spoke on "The Association from an ex-president's viewpoint."

Among the bankers who gave talks were S. W. Smith, Standard bank of Fullerton; J. H. Turner, First National, Santa Ana; A. L. Thomas, president Golden State bank, Anaheim; E. B. Sprague, cashier Orange County Trust and Savings bank, Santa Ana; J. W. Hargrave, First National, Yorba Linda; E. L. Crawford, cashier California National, Santa Ana; H. H. Krause, cashier First National, Anaheim.

CHURCH PAYS OFF DEBT
POMONA, Oct. 9.—Pomona's $100,000 First Baptist church is free from debt, although the building is only about five years old. At the annual meeting tonight it was announced that the debt had been completely paid. Dr. J. Harvey Deere, the pastor, as moderator of the church, presided at the gathering, and in a few brief remarks felicitated those present on having passed through a successful year.

MOTOR DISPLAYS DRAW THROUGHS

as an individual side. Everyone, of course, was interested in making the fair a success and the auto men, known everywhere as a "live" bunch, shared largely in this feeling. Also, the auto show is good advertising, and every auto, truck, and tractor exhibitor, I believe, will find during the few months following the fair that the time, trouble and money it cost to show his wares was well worth while from a business standpoint.

I talked with several of the exhibitors last night and all were mightily pleased with the way the fair is being managed. The auto tents were jammed yesterday afternoon, and the exhibitors already feel well repaid for the business-getting efforts they have put forward.

Shows Briscoes.
C. H. McCausland has two Briscoe models just to the right of the entrance into auto tent No. 1, and besides making two sales on the opening day, has made many friends and admirers for his cars during the show.

Just across the aisle are three classy Cole models, roadster and touring. One especially, a swell "dolled up" job, has been attracting unusual interest. The Cole exhibit won a special prize for its good arrangement of cars, rest chairs, etc.

J. W. Tubbs, with three Stephens cars, occupies a good space in the center of the tent, and next to him are two Elgin touring cars, exhibited by Miller and Monkhouse.

The Santa Ana Motor Car company has the largest recreation car display—two Columbia touring cars, two Appersons, and two Stutz models.

Bob White has three cars—two Franklins and a Liberty.

The Reid Motor company is showing two Chevrolet cars, Christian Brothers have three Velie touring cars, and Edgar & Hays have a pair of Oaklands.

J. H. Renfro is looking after a fine Westcott touring car, exhibited by W. E. Alexander. The Auto Trades Association has a comfortable rest room in this tent.

In tent No. 2 one is greeted, on the left, by two Nash cars, a chassis, and a Nash truck, with Fred Haakenson, manager of the truck department, and George Kellogg of the passenger car department, acting as hosts.

Beach Firm Exhibits.
Adjoining the Nash display is a Ford sedan, touring car, and Fordson tractor, exhibited by Talbert and Company of Huntington Beach, with H. A. Berge in charge.

The Automotive Sales and Service company show a Moreland truck, utility trailer, Sewell cushion wheel, and Master carburetor. F. S. Bushnell has a Merry Garden auto cultivator and lawn tractor, and an Oldsmar garden tractor.

Danewood and Garway of Orange show a large Mack truck and E. G. Stinson of Orange has a pair of G. M. C. trucks and some monster pneumatic tires.

L. G. Swales, with Mark Virgin in charge, assisted by Herb Messerschmidt, is showing two Samson trucks, a Samson tractor, and patented tractor equipment sold by Swales.

The Union Tool company of Torrance has a cut-away job, a Union Tool tractor, and part display board.

Paese, Kolberg and Company of Orange also have a cut-away Wallis job in action—said to be the finest thing of its kind ever seen in the county, and which has attracted a lot of attention. This firm also shows a huge Clydesdale truck, with M. A. Miller in charge of the exhibit.

M. Eltiste of Orange shows an International truck and tractor, with a group of farm implements, and Fred Towner of Santa Ana has a fine collection of tractor implements and parts turned out of his shop here.

The Wm. F. Lutz company shows a Fitch and a Moline tractor and John L. Wheeler has a Cletrac on display.

Both auto clubs have nicely decorated and arranged rest rooms in this tent and the chairs are in constant use by people who have become tired walking about the extensive exhibit tents.

Yes, the general verdict is that "she's some show" and another large crowd is anticipated for the closing night of the fair.

FINE GIVES FURTHER VIEWS ON PARKING

Such cars block parking for people who might want to trade in the city—who might want to trade with the very mechanic whose cars stand all day in front of his place. It might be inconvenient for the business man to walk a block or two from the car to the store, but that same inconvenience is encountered by the prospective customer when the business man's car is parked for hours in front of his store.

I can't say that I am 'strong' for this walking stuff. Still I am willing to admit that I would be benefited by walking rather than riding from my residence to the office. I am certain I would walk if it were a case of walk or drive my car down town to stand out in the open all day long. Yet, I believe business men who today are driving their cars down town would be in better physical condition if they were to form the habit of walking from home to their stores or offices mornings and evenings. What say you?

SUIT OVER LICENSE
ONTARIO, Oct. 9.—G. A. Hansen and W. S. Fenton, two prominent Ontario business men, face the responsibility of being made defendants in a suit filed by the city to collect license fees. Hansen and Fenton refused to pay the last city license, according to a report filed with the City Council by W. O. Hardy, city marshal.

The Council authorized City Attorney B. F. Warner to start suit.

Sound—Either Way You Look At It:

Regard the personal guarantee of J. Ogden Armour, if you wish, as the principal feature of the Sutter Basin Land Mortgage 8% Serial Gold Bonds — and you will conclude the investment sound. Many investors are disposed to regard this guarantee alone as a sufficient reason for investing in these bonds.

But you can disregard Armour's guarantee, if you like, and you still have an attractive investment. The bonds are secured by a mortgage on 55,122 acres of land in Sutter County, California, worth $17,000,000.

This land is excellent farming land. About 45-

000 acres have been brought under the Company's extensive irrigating system. Crops raised are melons, grain, rice, beans, fruit and truck vegetables. The yield on these crops is uniformly good. The land is favorably situated with regard to markets.

The mortgage is a first mortgage except for a reclamation assessment the Company's share of which amounts to $3,850,000. The entire assessment has been funded in a District 1500 bond issue whose earliest maturities are later than the final maturity of these Sutter Basin Bonds.

Either way you look at these bonds—they are a sound, a good investment for your funds.

DROPS LENIENCY TO TRAMPS
UPLAND, Oct. 9.—Judge G. R. Crane is "off" leniency to tramps for a while, he declared today. Wednesday three youths, R. H. Horne, 18; Edward Herrington, 19, and Charles Cornett, 20, were arrested on a charge of beating their way East on a Santa Fe train. The judge called up a packing house manager and secured picking jobs for the boys in the orange groves. They went to the packing house, secured sacks, and were started for the orange district, but continued on their way East, according to reliable information, going by through freight.

SEEK WORD OF LOST OFFICER

Walter W. Craig, a second lieutenant of K Company, Fifty-ninth Infantry, was leading the company into a new position in the Bois de Fay, eight kilometers from Montfaucon on the night of Oct. 4, 1918. The column was surprised by a terrific machine-gun and rifle fire and the men took to cover until daylight, when they stormed the machine-gun nest and captured it. The body of Corporal Schmidt, one of Lieut. Craig's men, was found partly stripped of clothing, but no trace of the officer has ever been discovered, although it was supposed at the time that he had probably been wounded and made prisoner by the Germans.

In behalf of the mother of the missing man, Clark Millen, of 44 Oriental street, Newark, N. J., is trying to find out details of his fate from former prisoners of war or anyone else who may have seen or heard of him.

This is one of the more than two thousand unsolved mysteries of the war which the American Legion Weekly—in co-operation with newspapers is endeavoring to clear up. If any reader has any information about Lieut. Craig, he or she is requested to communicate with Mr. Millen at once.

Following are several other cases of disappearance in which uncertainty as to the fate of their loved ones is breaking the hearts of bereaved parents throughout the land:

Carl E. Mishler, Pvt., Co. H, 15th Inf., reported wounded in action and taken to a hospital, name and location unknown. His mother has never received any definite information as to his death or whereabouts. Write Mrs. James L. Mishler, Pearl City, Iowa.

LeRoy Harry Delaney, 95th Co., 6th Marines, wounded at Soissons in July, 1918, according to word family received from a sergeant in his company. Last April he was reported buried, date and place unknown. Mother seeks word from anyone who knew him. Address Mrs. John Delaney, Salem Pike, Mount Washington, Cincinnati, Ohio.

Lester L. Kinnear, 2nd Lt., 115th Inf., last heard from in March, 1919. Write his father, S. R. Kinnear, Hereford, Colo.

George M. Bissett, cpl., B Co., 58th Inf., last seen about 5 p. m., on Sept. 29, 1918, fighting his way through a thicket in the Argonne. Family has received no definite information regarding his fate. Address Duncan Bissett, Amenia, N. D.

Raymond Alvin Pinkerton, 80th Co., 6th Marines, wounded at Soissons, July 19, 1918, and evacuated to a hospital, where official trace of him ends. In the absence of records the Marine Corps "presumes" he is dead, but the boy's mother clings to the hope that he may be alive in some hospital. Write Mrs. Margaret S. Pinkerton, 158 North Broadway, Middletown, Ohio.

Van Samuel Smith, cook, M Co., 137th Inf., reported missing on Sept. 29, 1918, and later reported killed. Last seen in a truck being taken away from the front. Write his sister, Elizabeth S. Smith, Box 78, Elburn, Ill.

Carl L. Firor, 315th Amb. Co., 304th Sanitary Train, reported sick and admitted to field hospital dressing station, near Malancourt, Sept. 28, 1918. Records of Evacuation Hospital 114, Fleury (Meuse), indicate that on Sept. 29 he was admitted there suffering from multiple gunshot wounds from which he died on October 1. Comrade reports he saw Firor alive, but ill, in a hospital on Oct. 3. Address Mrs. Anna Percival Firor, Burkittsville, Md.

Walker J. Griffith, Co. C, 7th Inf., officially reported killed but mother believes he is mental case in some hospital. She last heard from him in July, 1918. Write Mrs. Jennie F. Griffith, 19th St., N. E., Canton, O.

Harry J. Streit, B Co., 11th Inf., classified as killed but War Department has no definite record. Reported missing in action Sept. 12, 1918. Write Gustave E. Streit, 2132 Lakeland avenue, Lakewood, O.

Jack Kirchenbaum, sgt., Chemical Warfare Service, last seen December 13, 1918, in hospital at Chateau Thierry, convalescing from effects of gas. Write sister, Mrs. May A. Sullivan, 254 Aurora Street, St. Paul, Minn.

Frank J. Gibson, D Co., 38th Inf., reported present for duty with company at Andernach, Germany, July 5, 1919. Two days later A. G. O. wrote mother asking "what should be done with his body." "I am almost crazy with suspense," writes his mother, Mrs. J. V. Gibson, of Batson, Tex., "and would be grateful for any information concerning my boy." She has received no mail from him since October 2, 1918.

FAVOR ANNEXATION PLAN
PASADENA, Oct. 9.—Petitions asking for an annexation election in Lamanda Park, an eastern suburb, were found sufficient by the Pasadena city clerk and the Pasadena commission will next week set a date for an election upon the proposal of that section joining this municipality. The proposition has been twice defeated in the past. Lamanda Park residents favoring annexation held a meeting this evening in the office of Dr. O. M. Harrah at which methods of getting out a full vote for the proposal were discussed.

CROWN STAGE'S RATES QUIZZED

Refusing A. B. Watson, of Santa Ana, owner of the Crown Stage company, operating between Los Angeles and points in Orange county, authority to increase his fares the railroad Commission yesterday ordered an investigation of the affairs of the company. Testimony given at the hearing of Watson's application for an increase indicated that his company was getting a return of 29.15 per cent on its investment. Because of this showing the commission, on its own motion, has ordered Watson to appear before Examiner Handford at Los Angeles, at a time yet to be fixed and show cause why the commission should not establish what it may consider to be just and reasonable fares.

Analyzing the financial statement filed by Watson in connection with his application for an increase in fares the commission points out an item of $1900 listed under operating expenses as the right to operate the Rose Line; also an item of $10,000 for the right to operate Ogden Line. These amounts were paid by Watson for these lines and "are presumed to cover franchise value, will, going concern value or other intangibles by whatever term called." The commission says in reference to these items:

"The Commission will not allow in a rate basis of any carrier any amount of so-called operative rights other than the expense actually paid for the securing of a certificate of public convenience and necessity. Deducting the above mentioned amounts which erroneously appear as operating expenses the correct statement of operating expenses is $84,764.89, and the correct amount derived from operation during the period June 1, 1919 to March 31, 1920, is $19,261.93. After allowing the very liberal depreciation claimed by the applicant, the net amount received from operation results in a return of 29.15 per cent on the investment amounting to $66,024.61 and, in the opinion of the commission, such return is in excess of a reasonable return on the capital invested and justifies an inquiry on the commission's initiative as to the reasonableness of the present rates of fare as charged by the applicant."

FARMER FIGHTS BULL WITH HIS BARE HANDS

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Oct. 9.—An exceptional barehanded struggle against an enraged bull ended, only when his brother-in-law came to his aid with a rifle, resulted in saving the life of Howard Richardson, 32 years old, who with his wife, resides four miles east of Victor. When the animal and other cattle broke into a field of the Richardson farm, Howard Richardson went to drive them out. He was attacked by the enraged bull and thrown to the ground, where the bull proceeded to stamp upon him. Charles Lovejoy, a brother-in-law of Richardson, was passing the house with his family in a auto and witnessed the attack. Lovejoy went to Richardson's assistance while Mrs. Lovejoy ran to the house and got a rifle. Lovejoy found Richardson prostrate on the ground with the bull backing off for repeated attacks on the man.

Each rush, however, was met by the attacked man gouging his fingers deep into the animal's eyes, staying the advance to some extent. The gouging tactics on the part of Richardson saved his life, for had the enraged animal reached his victim's chest or head with his hoofs death would have resulted.

Lovejoy was unable to shoot the animal in a vital part for fear of hitting Richardson, but finally managed to put three or four bullets through the bull's thighs, forcing temporary abandonment of the attack. Richardson was immediately lifted over the fence, and, with a few more shots, Lovejoy killed the bull.

Richardson was badly bruised over the entire body, but it is believed he will recover.

INVENTOR BRINGS JOY TO LIMBURGER LOVERS

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Oct. 9.—No longer will father have to avoid crowds and hang his coat out for an airing after he has carried home a chunk for supper, for odorless Limburger cheese has been found.

The H. B. Stanz Cheese company, of this city, claims to have turned out the product with as much lusciousness, but without the time-worn identification mark.

NEW RUSSIAN STATE IS OASIS OF PEACE

LONDON, Oct. 9.—Despite all reports to the contrary, there is one spot in Europe where peace and prosperity reigns. And, incongruous as it may seem, this one spot is in Russia.

Down in the newly created Republic of Georgia, the scars of war are invisible. In this little principality, bounded by the Black and Caspian Seas on the west and east respectively, Armenia on the South and the Caucasus on the north, a quiet and completely normal life exists, according to the Georgian Foreign Minister, who has arrived in London to confer with Premier Lloyd George and Earl Curzon, head of the Foreign office.

The Georgian diplomat attributed the enviable state of affairs in this country to the temperament of the Georgians, their geographical location and the political self-control of the government. "We have been absolutely free from the horrors of civil war which has torn asunder the former Russian Empire," said M. Gugsushvili. "In Georgia—the oasis of peace in the Near East—the revolution did not disturb the state as it did in most of Russia. On the contrary it created a state on a purely democratic basis. This is the best proof of the political maturity of the Georgian people."

ple. "Now firmly established, with their own government, it is the wish of the Georgians to imbue the culture of the old countries of Europe. We want foreign capital knowledge and experience to come to our country in a friendly way in order to utilize its wealth to our mutual advantage."

The greatest stumbling block in the way of economic intercourse with other nations, according to the foreign minister, is the hesitancy of European nations in recognizing the complete independence of the newly created republic.

Several of the entente nations have recognized the de facto government, but are withholding de jure recognition because of the stand taken by the United States in regard to Russia. America's "watchful waiting" policy, together with her refusal to approve the upbreking of the old empire and the establishment of independent states out of the various provinces, it is pointed out, prevents American as well as foreign capital from seeking investments and developing the immense natural resources.

Specialization is the obsession of a single-track mind.

The rare thing in the world today is diversity of talents.

In men and in automobiles the great essential is the ability to match any occasion, to cope with any emergency, and to do it with a minimum of effort and a maximum of success.

But greatest of all the merits of the Overland Sedan is her all-around usefulness—the ceaseless cycle of her service in the Decathlon of Travel—her eagerness for the golf game, her readiness for shopping, her efficiency in business, her up-and-doing spirit on a tour—where the road goes she will go also, swiftly, comfortably, economically, and so safely that any man who buys an Overland Sedan can trust his wife or daughter at the wheel.

The Overland Sedan does not ask for auspicious conditions under which to perform.

She asks only for the open road. If it be smooth, so much the better. If not, then her Triple Spring will make it so.

For comfort is second nature to the Overland Sedan, and maintenance is the least of her difficulties.

Fordson

TRADE MARK

A Fordson Tractor on the farm means more prosperity for the farmer. It doesn't make any difference how you spell that prosperity—whether it is in increased production; whether it is in the saving that comes from a machine over a horse or a mule; whether it comes in a release from the drudgery and all-day and all-night labor on the farm for both man and wife—because the Fordson answers all those problems to the satisfaction of the farmer.

It can't be otherwise. These are the days of progress, and power on the farm is the necessity. It is only a question of what kind of power the farmer is going to have, but no farmer with the facts now before him can question the monetary advantage of machine power over horse and mule-power. The Tractor is the farmer's necessity just as much as the sun is the necessity for growing crops.

All that is necessary for a farmer is to know his Fordson Tractor as familiarly as he understands handling a team of horses. He wants to use the same amount of reason and common sense. In the Fordson Tractor is the concentrated power of eighteen horses, and as flexible as the movement of your arm—much more flexible than horse control—and beyond all comparison much more economical both in service and in keep. Then it will do so many things that horses and mules cannot do, and it doesn't eat when idle.

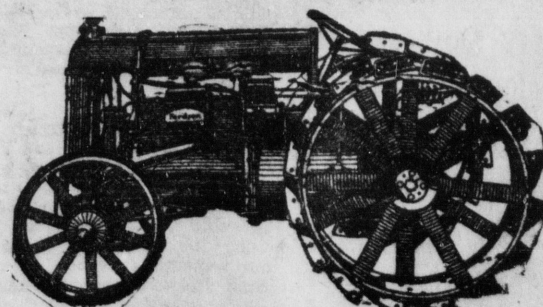

We don't believe there is any question in the mind of any farmer as to the necessity for a Tractor, but he may have some doubts as to what make of Tractor, so that is the reason we are putting this advertisement in this paper to draw his attention to the Fordson Tractor. This is why we put the above arguments before him, and why we now invite him to come in to our place of business and view the Fordson Tractor. Let us show him what it has done. Let us prove to him its superiority over any other Tractor. It means more to him than it does to us. When we sell a Tractor, we make a small profit, but when he buys a Tractor he buys a power that is working for him every day in the year; that is, if he buys a Fordson—we can't speak for the other kinds. Come in!

USE X-RAY IN SEARCH FOR PRECIOUS PEARLS

Chicago, Oct. 9.—The X-rays have been introduced in the pearl fisheries of Ceylon to determine the presence or absence of a pearl in oysters without destroying the bivalve, according to advices from the Orient. One of the world's most ancient jewels may be saved in this way from eventual extinction.

It has been customary to open the oyster shells in the search for pearls. This results in the death of the oyster. This process continued through the centuries has seriously depleted the number of pearl oysters. The pearl fisheries are approaching exhaustion. No large pearls have been found for years. The X-ray recently was tried in an effort to save the oysters. It apparently solved the problem. It was found feasible to determine whether an oyster contained a pearl. Even small pearls were made visible. Mollusks that held no gems were thrown back to become the possible pearl-bearers of the future.

Travel by Motor Transit stages to Los Angeles and intermediate points. Cars leave station, 5th & Sycamore streets, every half hour from 6:10 a. m. until 8:10 p. m., then 9:10, 10:10, and 11:10 p. m. daily. Frequent return schedule.

Posters to this effect were put out during the past week by the school trustees and a full attendance of taxpayers is expected.

Between that date and Oct. 7, 204 cars have been shipped out. Only 755 tons went out during the past week. This week only four ranchers are hauling and two of them finish before the end of the week. The dump closed Wednesday for the day, as the factory was oversupplied.

It did not prove successful as the child went too far under the influence of the anesthetic administered and the muscles were not in the proper condition necessary for successful operation. Another operation will probably be performed within a few days.
